DOUBLE VISION

In celebration of Gump's 150th anniversary, S.F.'s top destination for home decor has stepped back in time to honor the brand's 1861 mirror-and-frame beginnings. Teaming up with 30 artists, the store unveils this spring's Mirror Mirror collection of one-of-a-kind pieces. Architect Mark Jensen and interior designer Kelly Wearstler are among the talents whose works will beautify the store before being auctioned off on March 31st to benefit California College of the Arts. 135 Post St., S.F., 415-982-1616; gumps.com.

Out of the Box

Classic, chic interiors go viral with Windsor Smith's latest project

Brentwood-based decorator Windsor Smith wraps a silver ribbon around the daunting design process—all without setting foot inside your home. Smith's Room in a Box, a virtual design service, starts off with your photos, measurements and inspiration. She then delivers a box filled with do-it-yourself accoutrements, from floor plan to fabric swatches and curated furniture selections. The cost, based on room type and square footage, ranges from $900 to $4,800. roominabox.com.
