

WHAT'S NEW

MOVEABLE FEAST

The rolling Mist bar cart, designed by Windsor Smith for Century Furniture, features silvered galleys and oak wood shelves. $7,917, NYDC, centuryfurniture.com.

ROOM SERVICE

For passing drinks or snacks, the Fia tray by Pappelina is simple in its Swedish design. The birch veneer is coated in a pale turquoise melamine coating. $32, through Eleish van Breems, Westport, evbantiques.com.

CRAFTED COCKTAILS

The New Traditionalist bar cabinet is handmade to order with classic joinery construction. Customizable in a choice of North American black walnut, oak or maple wood and a variety of hand-applied stains or artisan finishes. $9,583, NYDC, thenewtraditionalists.com.

SHIP SHAPE

Galvanized iron, brass plating and exposed rivets lend a nautical vibe to the Porthole bar cart from RH, Restoration Hardware. $2,595, Greenwich, rh.com.

CHEERS TO THE CAPE

Designer Michael Wainwright's Truro pattern was inspired by footprints in the shifting sands of Cape Cod. The crystalline glass collection features carved details decorated with 24k gold. Set of two old fashioned glasses, $80, through LCR Westport, lcrwestport.com, michaelwainwright.com.

A GOOD POUR

As a vessel or a vase, Edgewood Made's faceted pitcher combines beauty and function in matte porcelain. $120, through the Glass House Design Store, New Canaan, designstore.theglasshouse.org.

THE GLASS HOUSE: ANDY ROMIER